Mansefield House

Sleeps 10 (+ 2)

Self-catering Accommodation

Mansefield House is a fine Grade B listed Victorian house built circa 1840 which retains many original features. Large gracious reception rooms with high ceilings and ornate cornicing lend themselves to entertaining, while the main character of the house is warm, comfortable and homely. A large dining room with wood burning stove, large sitting room and spacious kitchen with range cooker comprise the main rooms of the house. There is also a games room with a 6x3ft snooker table, with doors leading to the patio and garden.

The house stands in an elevated position with large private gardens, situated on the shores of Loch Long, with uninterrupted views of Loch Long and the Arrochar Alps. Loch Lomond lies 2 miles to the East.

The house is situated 100 yards from The Village Inn, a well renowned traditional bar and restaurant serving excellent Scottish fayre, which appears in the Good Beer Guide. Other fine restaurants in the vicinity include The Loch Fyne Oyster Bar, Inver Cottage and The Lodge on the Loch Restaurant overlooking Loch Lomond. The village shop is a two minute walk from the house, and other amenities are close by.

In the heart of The Loch Lomond and Trossachs National Park, activities such as walking, climbing, golf, mountain biking, horse riding, fishing, sailing and various other watersports are on the doorstep, while the centre of Glasgow and its abundance of culture is only a 50 minute drive away. The immediate area has a wealth of attractions, including Inveraray Castle, Charles Rennie Mackintosh's Hill House, the Glengoyne Whisky Distillery and the glorious gardens of Argyll & Bute.

Arrochar is an attractive West Highland village with a well supplied village shop, a good pub and restaurant, a green grocer, petrol station, coffee shops, and a post office / newspaper shop.

To get to Mansefield House, take the A82 to Tarbet either from the North or from Glasgow and the South. At Tarbet, take the A83 towards Campbeltown for two miles.

On arriving in Arrochar, turn left at the Arrochar Hotel (signposted A814 Helensburgh) and continue along the lochside for 900 metres.

Accommodation runs from 4pm on the day of entry to 10am on the day of departure.

A 30% deposit, in the form of a cheque made payable to Mansefield House, is required to hold the booking, while the remaining balance is due one month prior to the booking. Deposit and balance payments are non-refundable.

We also request that you send us a Good Housekeeping Deposit in the form of a cheque for £150. This is returned to you after your departure, on leaving the property as found.

A £20 supplement is payable per pet, to be paid with the deposit.
